

April 4, 1941.

Mr. J. Hailstalk,
232 West 135th St.,
New York City.

Dear Sir:

I had expected an answer to my letter by now. I am very anxious to get all information necessary to put on my placards, because I must order them within the next few days.

As you know I asked you to send me a contract for the Band, the same agreement as we had last year with Miss Willie Mae Johnson as Drum majorette.

If I do not hear from you by this coming Monday, I will assume you do not want the job.

Very truly yours,

EM:CCJ